FOOD AND NOT GOLD

What Is Wanted by the People of Dawson City.

THE SITUATION VERY CRITICAL.

Terrible Tale of Woe Told by New Arrivals From the Alaskan Gold Fields—Indignation Meetings Held Daily and Violence Faced—Vessel Crushed in the Ice and Forty Lives Lost.

OTTER POINT, B. C., Sept. 11.—The steamer Cleveland has arrived from St. Michael's, bringing with her from the Yukon gold fields a story of distress and disaster. The miners she has on board and officers in charge of the ship tell the story of disaster and distress at Dawson.

The winter has set in at the mining city of the frozen north and two great stores of the place have closed their doors for they have nothing to sell. Those who have been seeking gold now must seek food or starve.

While there may be a tendency to exaggerate the actual condition of affairs, there can be no question that famine threatens the adventurous men and women who made their way to the Klondike. Hundreds of unruly spirits are flocking to Dawson.

Threats of violence are being made on every side. Indignation meetings, heavy with muttered threats of vengeance are held at St. Michael's by those who see little hopes of advancing up the river and less of getting back to civilization.

The first signs of winter are apparent on the river Yukon, which is beginning to freeze and in a few weeks will be closed. Enormous prices are now being paid for food at Dawson and it is impossible that more than four vessels with provisions can reach Dawson before the river is a mass of ice.

On the Cleveland there are 38 passengers, men, women and children, who are from Dawson. There are few miners in this party that are able to tell of prosperity. Many of them wish to exaggerate their stories and if one would believe them, he would say the treasure ship in which they come carries $5,000,000. Captain Hall, master of the Cleveland, says that he has $100,000 in his safe. The purser believes that he can account for $150,000 on board.

The Cleveland has some of the passengers of the P. B. Ware on board. The Ware left Dawson City in time to connect with the Portland, had she not met a mishap and struck on the flats above Circle City. They report that on July 25 the stores of the Alaska Commercial company and of the North American Trading and Transportation company announced that they had no more food to sell.

Three weeks before that the same company were able to furnish outfitts, and when the announcement was made that no more goods were available, consternation resulted on the part of the people of Dawson, with gold seekers piling in at the rate of 20 to 30 a day. Drunkenness, gambling and disorder were rampant and conservative observers predict the most serious consequences.

There is gold everywhere, but the people of Dawson want food more than they want gold now. At St. Michael's, there are not enough structures to accommodate the crowd and scores of people are living in tents.

Shortly before the Cleveland left St. Michael's, two of the expeditions held indignation meetings threatening dire vengeance upon those who had brought them there and were unable to carry them further. They had been left stranded at St. Michael's, and can not possibly reach Dawson before next spring.

If fortune favors four vessels will be able to reach Dawson from St. Michael's before the Yukon river freezes. They will carry provisions but it is by no means certain that they will reach the Klondike. They offer the only hope, however, for a renewal of supplies.

Aug. 28 the Excelsior left St. Michael's. Reports are current that her treasure amounted to $1,000,000, but there are none on the Cleveland who can verify this assertion.

The Excelsior was caught on the dangerous flats of the Yukon and broke two blades of her propeller. When the Cleveland reached Unalaska she found the Excelsior undergoing repairs.

Shortly before the Cleveland left for Seattle the United States revenue cutter Bear put into St. Michael's with Captain Whiteside, his wife, two officers and four seamen of the steam whaler Nevach. They are all that remain to tell the terrible story of death in the Arctic. The Nevach was caught in an ice pack in the Arctic ocean. Of her crew 42 were lost. Thirty-one were crushed in the ice or frozen to death.

The Bear saw the vessel's signals of distress near Point Barrow and lost no time in going to her assistance. The captain, his wife, two officers and four sailors were glad to leave the dismasted, crippled ship, but nine positively refused to leave. They were lost in the desolate field of ice and it is feared they have perished.

The Cleveland also brings news that when the Humboldt stopped at Unalaska on her journey to St. Michael's the passengers were in open rebellion.

They began to realize that it would be impossible for them to reach Dawson before next spring and they knew that misery awaited them at St. Michael's. There were open threats against W. D. Wood, the organizer and manager of the expedition and it is feared that he may lose his life at the hands of his passengers.

NOT YET DECIDED.

Resolutions That May Be Adopted at the Miners' Conference.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 11.—The national miners' convention adjourned yesterday evening without reaching any final decision. At the time of adjournment a substitute resolution, which the miners' officials confidently believe will be adopted, was under discussion. Two previous resolutions providing for an acceptance of the Pittsburgh operators' propositions were defeated because the Illinois, Indiana and West Virginia miners did not think their interests were sufficiently protected.

The substitute resolution, it is claimed by the officials, gives the miners of these states all the protection they could reasonably ask, since it provides for a continuation of the strike wherever the operators refuse to grant the advance to their miners. However, the officials are finding it extremely difficult to convince the delegates, opposed to a settlement, that they are in the wrong.

Secretary Lewis of Ohio has been the most active leader of the opposition, and threatened last night if the national officials forced matters to an issue, to spring a sensation in the convention. The national officials say, however, that they have nothing to fear. The substitute resolution to be voted on is as follows:

RESOLVED, That we endorse the recommendation of the national executive board and that work be resumed on the basis of 65 cents in western Pennsylvania with a corresponding advance in all the districts of the competitive field, and be it further,

RESOLVED, That when such an advance is refused the suspension be continued and that an assessment of 10 per cent of all the money earned by the miners at work be collected and used for the purpose of maintaining the miners idle until such time as the scale rates can be obtained for them, and be it further,

RESOLVED, That a circular appeal be issued by the national executive board to organized labor and to the public generally asking them to assist us in the caring for and keeping of all mine workers in the field, who are idle for the enforcement of scale rates; all moneys and provisions to be sent to Secretary Pearce and distributed pro rata to miners on a strike from the national office.

Thrown Off a Train.

WABASH, Ind., Sept. 11.—Bert Oldfield, a 15-year-old boy, lies severely injured at his home in this city, the result of being thrown from a train on the Wabash railway. The lad tried to beat his way to Pern on the local freight, and he was discovered between the cars by a brakeman, who ordered him to jump off. The train was running rapidly, and he hesitated, whereupon the man threw him off. He sustained a compound fracture of the leg and is hurt internally. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the brakeman.

Rev. Hinshaw Out of Prison.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 11.—The Rev. William E. Hinshaw, serving a life sentence at the northern prison, was brought here yesterday, en route to Danville, Ind., where he will testify before the grand jury. Hinshaw was sentenced from Danville. The cause for the investigation grows out of a confession by an ex-convict named Bancy, who has stated that Hinshaw was not the murderer of his wife. In his statement Bancy has implicated two other convicts, who he claimed to be responsible for the death of Mrs. Hinshaw.

Child Mysteriously Missing.

MIDDLETOWN, O., Sept. 11.—C. E. Marker, living on East Fourth street, reports his 5-year-old son as missing. Thursday afternoon he was sent to the grocery by Mrs. Herman, a neighbor, for a sack of salt and has not been seen since. It is feared he has been kidnapped by gypsies, as a large caravan of them broke camp north of town that afternoon. The police here have taken the matter in hand and are working on the case.

Diseased Meat.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Sept. 11.—Mrs. John Cronin and two daughters and Mrs. Thomas Steele, who is visiting the Cronin family, ate heartily of boiled ham yesterday and soon after became violently ill. A physician was called who administered antidotes and pronounced the cause of their illness the eating of diseased meat.

Excitemen Causes Death.

XENIA, O., Sept. 11.—Excitement caused by burglars who had entered the house of Charles Fulkerson, attracted to the scene, and caused the death of Edward Karch. He walked to his father's house, on the opposite side of the street, and fell dead. He was aged 35 years and had never been sick a day in his life.

Town Marshal Stabbed.

WAPAKONETA, O., Sept. 11.—Last night Marshal William Melching, while taking Frank Craft to his home, was fatally stabbed. Craft was drunk when he stabbed the officer, who was making an arrest in his home instead of making an arrest.

Two Children Burned to Death.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 10.—At Fairmont, a suburb of this city, the little son and daughter of Joseph Creeder were yesterday afternoon cremated by the burning of an outbuilding in which they were at play.

Railroad Collision in Germany.

COLOGNE, Sept. 11.—In a collision at Urbach yesterday, between a freight train and a passenger train, two railroad employees were killed, several passengers were injured and much damage was done.

THIRTY PEOPLE DEAD

One Hundred and Eighty-Five Injured.

EXTENT OF A RAILROAD WRECK

Another Head-End Collision in Colorado Between a Denver and Rio Grande Passenger Train and a Special Colorado Midland Stock Train, Both Running at Full Speed.

NEWCASTLE, Colo., Sept. 11.—The wreck which occurred yesterday on the track of the Denver and Rio Grande and the Colorado Midland railways, one and a half miles west of here, was the most disastrous that ever occurred in Colorado. After 24 hours' incessant work by the wrecking crews in clearing away the debris and rescuing the bodies of those who perished, it is yet impossible to secure more than an estimate of the loss of life, and not even those known to be dead have been identified. Many of the unfortunate never will be known, and it is possible that the number killed will always be in doubt. From the best information obtainable now fully 30 persons are believed to have perished, while 185 were taken out of the wreck suffering from serious injuries.

The wrecks was caused by a head-end collision between a Denver and Rio Grande passenger train, running at the rate of 40 miles an hour, and a special Colorado Midland stock train, running at a speed of probably 30 miles. So terrific was the concussion that both engines, baggage and express cars, smoker and day coaches and two stock cars were totally demolished, and the train torn up for rods in both directions. To add to the horror of the scene, the wreckage caught fire from an explosion of a Pintsch gas tank on the passenger train, and burned so rapidly that many passengers pinned beneath the debris were burned to death before help could reach them.

The most generally accepted theory as to the cause of the wreck seems to be that Conductor Burbank of the Midland special anticipated the time of the passenger, undertook to "steal a station" and beat the passenger into Newcastle. Burbank escaped uninjured, and upon orders from Coroner Clark, has been placed under arrest by the sheriff. Midland Engineer Ostrander is missing and a thorough search all about his engine fails to reveal any vestige of his remains. It is thought that when he saw the threatened danger he jumped from his engine and, realizing his negligence, took to the hills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Strouse, who live a quarter of a mile from the scene of the accident, report that when the two trains met the shock was so great as to literally hurl them out of bed. Some say the noise was heard and the shock felt in Newcastle.

The list of dead and injured so far as known is as follows:

The dead are recognized are:

F. J. Keenan, mail agent, of Denver. Robert S. Holland, fireman of Denver and Rio Grande, railway, of Salida. Mrs. Alexander Hartman and two sons of Herscher, Ills.

James Errick of Chicago.

William Gordon, engineer passenger train.

Those most seriously injured are:

Rev. Alexander Hartman of Herscher, Ills., both legs broken and badly burned.

J. C. Yerger of Toledo, O., injured internally.

Mrs. Mary Israel of St. Paul, Minn., injured internally.

O. V. Titson of Cooker, Mo., cut badly about head.

R. W. Shot, Leeper, Pa., badly bruised.

James C. Foley, express messenger, badly bruised.

William S. Missemmer, express messenger, badly bruised.

Charred fragments of limbs and bodies of a number of persons have been taken out of the ruins, but it is not likely that any more bodies will be positively identified, and it seems certain that the number killed will remain in doubt.

The coroner found a shaving mug with the name "W. Nicholson" upon it; also a gold watch with the name of "F. C. Potter" engraved on the outside.

BOYS PLAY LYNNING.

One of Them Strung Up to a Live Electric Wire.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 11.—An Italian lad named Giovanni Dicilli, aged 4 years, together with several other Italian lads older than himself, were playing about the street car tracks at Lake View, when one of them conceived the idea of playing at having a lynching. The idea was at once carried out, and young Dicilli was chosen as the one to be hung up.

A wire loop was placed about his neck, to the end of which was tied a rope, which was then thrown over the trolley wire. Then the juvenile mob took hold of the dangling end of the rope and pulled their victim skyward. When the wire touched the trolley wire a spark flashed down, and little Dicilli's neck was instantly wrapped in a ring of blue flame. Some men standing by hastened to let him down. There are little hopes of his recovery.

Young Married Man Disappears.

BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 11.—W. H. Blair, a young married man of this place, in the employ of David Phillips, broom manufacturer, for several years, Tuesday went to the Clay county fair, since which time he has been mysteriously missing. His young wife is nearly distressed, fearing he has been murdered.

CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Trade Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: There is no halting in the advance. Business grows better in all ways, for while its speculative end breaks conspicuously gamblers for a decline, a steady increase in production, in working force and in the power of the people to purchase is the feature which overshadows all others. Reports of New York trade unions show an increase since one year ago of 34 per cent in the number of men at work and a similar increase among men in like position throughout the country would exceed 340,000 while every week adds many establishments to the active list. The coal miners' strike has disclosed such facts, and brought to light such differences, that work will probably be very soon resumed by a large share of the men. The farmers are helped by higher prices for wheat and while every western receipts do not show that they marketed a tenth of their crops, assurance of a handsome profits to come prevails upon them to buy here. Business of this kind and the increase of hands at work, dealers throughout the country have started to replenish stocks which pre-empt good force at present, operating in manufactures and trade through distribution by retail trade has greatly increased.

A gain of 12 per cent in one month in the output of pig iron from 165,378 tons Aug. 1 to 185,506 Sept. 1, with knowledge that half a dozen other furnaces are preparing to resume, and that unbroken stocks have been reduced 14,500 tons weekly in August, indicating a consumption of about 190,000 tons, more than explains the moderate advance in prices of finished products, averaging but 6 per cent since the lowest point Aug. 12. Pig is a shade stronger at Chicago, but the proof that the advance is healthy is found in the growing demands of consumers, especially for bars, with inquiries for 300,000 tons reported at Chicago for structural work, including 12,000 tons for Santa Fe bridges, for all kinds of ear material, including 10,000 axles, and for plates and especially for shipyards on the lakes, so that the most prices have advanced $1 per ton. Rods, sheet and merchant pipe are in heavy demand. Copper is steady and the production of coke has reached 124,000 tons with 12,717 ovens in operation.

Wheat has risen 5 cents the past week, not in a flurry, but in answer to the daily increasing foreign demand. Though reports of the crop, now almost wholly out of danger, indicate a yield never surpassed but once, foreign accounts still strengthen the belief that the deficiency abroad will be about 100,000,000 bushels more than usual, and meanwhile reports indicate that less corn than was expected will be available for exports. Its price has risen about 5.8 of a cent. While wheat receipts at Chicago have been breaking records receipts at all the western points are for the week a little below last year's, but Atlantic exports, 9,778,138 bushels, flour included, against 4,270,771 last year for two weeks, with 5,579,771 bushels corn, against 3,570,704 last year, indicate a foreign demand apparently limited at present only by ship room.

Since the small corner in August, cotton has relapsed to 7 1/2 cents, no rumors affecting prices much. Northern mills are consuming very largely with a continuing demand for goods, which have advanced the prices of many. With enormous speculative sales of wool which appear to constitute most of the market at Boston, there is also more buying there and elsewhere by the woolen mills, which are enjoying extraordinary demands for goods at prices averaging not 10 per cent higher than was paid early in the year.

The average advance for the week in sureties has been $1.12 per share for railroads, and 79 cents for trusts.

Failures for the week have been 215 in the United States, against 315 last year, and 35 in Canada, against 47 last year.

Luettgen Murder Trial.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—There was considerable progress in the Luettgen trial yesterday, particularly during the afternoon session. The day was devoted to the hearing of expert testimony. It was shown that the matter collected in the crevices of the pocket knife given by the alleged murderer to his former sweetheart, Mrs. Feldt, on the eve of his arrest, consisted of blood and particles of muscular tissue. The state failed to prove that it was human.

SINCE the Republicans claimed Florida and Louisiana in 1876 it has been no trouble for them to lay claim to anything in eight; hence their claim to being the authors of the advance in wheat, &c.

AN Indiana man has surprised some of the officials at Washington by returning a pension of $350. He explained that his disability had disappeared and he did not think he was entitled to a pension. The Pension Bureau will have the condition of his mind investigated, says a special from Washington. It is such an unusual occurrence that it has raised a question as to the man's sanity.

PIE COUNTER CLOSED.

Suggestive Silence Among the Office Seekers in Washington City.

[Washington Special Minneapolis Times.] During the past few days there has been a suggestive silence among the office seekers and their friends on the subject of the merit system, and members of the newly organized Anti-Civil Service League have been suspiciously noncommittal. This is explained by those in a position to know as being the result of a visit here of certain shrewd personal representatives of Mark Hanna, who were sent here for that purpose. These able gentlemen, it is said, have quietly notified the malcontent office seekers that their attacks on the civil service and the President's recent order enlarging the merit system were highly displeasing to Mr. McKinley, and would prove the death knell to their hopes of securing official recognition from the administration. It was further pointed out that this anti-civil service agitation would have a bad effect on the Ohio election and Hanna. If he should be defeated there this fall, no man who had taken part in the movement need hereafter apply at the McKinley pie counter.

PREPARING TO FLOP.

The Louisville Post Says a Change Has Lately Come Over the Dreams of the Courier-Journal.

[Louisville Post]

The Courier-Journal must be making uneasy the very estimable gentlemen it inveigled into the third nomination this year and a Bynum campaign.

In the spring, it was all fuss and fight. It puttered around in a queer sort of fashion, sentencing everybody to the guillotine who dared talk of harmony.

Every man in local affairs who even so much as said the financial question could not have place in local politics was denounced as being in politics only for office. Vicious, though not vigorous, violent but not forcible, vituperative but not convincing, the Courier-Journal announced its purpose to risk all on the turn of a card.

But there has been a change, a sea change into something new and strange. Or is it a periodical change, or due to taint in the blood, which forces the Courier-Journal to abandon those whom it gets into the midst of any bad fix.

At any rate the Courier-Journal is looking for something to happen. Perhaps it is the inevitable election of Weaver, which is tried to make impossible. Perhaps it is the failure of Bynum to come to Kentucky. Perhaps—perhaps, perhaps—but, why surmise?

We are not surprised at the Courier-Journal. Remembering its fight against the Constitution, and its desertion of those who enlisted with it, we are prepared for any flop on the part of the Courier-Journal. We knew, as the election approached, it would weaken. It has no stomach for a losing fight.

In the appointments for Hindman's campaign, the men who came to the convention in July in Louisville, and nominated Hindman, those earnest and resolute men, expected to see the name of the editor of the Courier-Journal lead all the names of the speakers, and Carlisle's follow next.

Neither has yet appeared, and the bets are dollars to doughnuts that the editor of the Courier-Journal does not appear on the stump even once to defend the movement for which he alone is responsible this year.

The tired editor of the Courier-Journal is hunting for some one to accept his surrender. He has been trying Walton for terms; he is turning now to the Glasgow News. He wants not only his side arms, but all the honors of war, and a chance to make a speech.

DOLLAR WHEAT.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—September wheat jumped from 98½ to $1 this morning. It soon declined, however, under pressure of profit-takers.

There was no unusual excitement in the wheat crowd, and the fact that dollar wheat was again touched caused but little talk or comment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Wheat opened amid considerable excitement at 1½c. advance, December touching $1.03. New York was stronger than Chicago, owing to the presence here of large foreign buying orders. Scalpers sold on the bulge and forced a reaction to $1.02½. New York bulls were aggressive. Some talk of $1.25 for September.

The Limestone Milling Company is paying 90 cents to-day, but reports that very little wheat is being offered.

THE LIE PASSED.

Republican State Officials Having a Great Time Fussing and Fighting Each Other.

FRANKFORT, KY., September 9.—There came very near being bloodshed at the meeting of the Sinking Fund Commissioners to-day.

The lie passed several times, and several warlike demonstrations were made.

The occasion was the trial of Clerk Caulfield, of the Eddyville Penitentiary. Caulfield was put on the stand to testify in his own behalf.

Warden Happy was present, and Caulfield took occasion to say that all that Happy or any one said about his incompetency was a d—n lie. The Governor, who is Chairman of the board, called Caulfield down, and told him he must not use such language. Later on, when the vote was taken on the question of Caulfield's removal, Governor Bradley and Treasurer Long voted against it, and Auditor Stone, Secretary of State Finley and Attorney General Taylor voted for removal.

Henry Wadsworth pitched for the Cincinnati Navies Friday against the Portsmouths and let his opponents down with five hits, the score being six to three in favor of the Navies. Lindsay was in the box for Portsmouth, and Henry got four hits off of him out of four times at bat, two two-baggers and two singles.

THE Louisville Dispatch has the following in reference to the captain of Maysville's crack '95 ball team: "McGann, of the Toronto team, is a youngster who will almost certainly make his mark in the base ball world. He is playing first base in great shape for his team now, and is one of the hardest hitters in the eastern league."

THE Broadway Baptist Church of Louisville, one of the largest and wealthiest churches in the south, has adopted resolutions characterizing the recent action of the Long Run Association as "unjustly reflecting upon President W. H. Whitsitt, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary." The manner of the adoption of the anti-Whitsitt resolutions is characterized as unparliamentary and unblushing.

THE New York Christian Herald of this week's issue contains a picture, among others, of Rev. Henry Forman, the missionary, well known in this community. The group represents the Herald's workers and distributors among the famine sufferers in that distressed land.

These zealous and tireless men are very highly commended for their work among the starving and sick of famine, stricken India.

FRANKFORT, KY., September 9.—The Sinking Fund Commissioners had a special meeting late this afternoon to discuss the Martin penitentiary chair contract and the feasibility of abrogating it. The Commissioners refuse to tell what took place at the meeting, but it is known that the board wrangled over the matter until finally the Governor offered a resolution directing the Warden to deliver no more chairs to Martin.

The resolution was not put to a vote, but the whole proceeding shows the board is irretrievably split up on both penitentiaries, and to an outsider it looks like a majority of the board is trying to down the Governor on all his plans, and a political war to the knife is on.

LOCAL OPTION LAWS.

Lapse of Six Years Under the New Constitution Repeals Them—Time Up September 28.

NICHOLASVILLE, KY., Sept. 9.—It will doubtless be a surprise to the citizens at all places through the State where local liquor laws exist to learn that after the 28th of this month their local laws will be void.

This is one of the decisions under the new Constitution that seems to have escaped the notice of most of the temperance people and the legal fraternity as well.

The case where the question was decided by the Court of Appeals, was carried up from Logan Circuit Court in March, 1890, and can be found by referring to McTigue vs. Commonwealth, in 17 Kentucky Law Reporter, page 1,418. In the above styled case there was a local law prohibiting the sale of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors in that county, and provided that a warrant for the violation of this law might be issued by and the offense tried by a Justice of the Peace, the penalty for the first violation being a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200, and for subsequent infractions thereof a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $300 and confined in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. McTigue was convicted of violating this law and fined $100 by a Justice of the Peace. He appealed to the Circuit Court and moved to dismiss the prosecution on the grounds that the Justice of the Peace had exceeded his jurisdiction under the new Constitution, section 140, which so far as it relates to the question reads:

"The jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace shall be co-extensive with the county and shall be equal and uniform throughout the State."

The Circuit Court overruled his motion and he appealed to the Court of Appeals. The opinion of that court reversing Logan Circuit Court and dismissing the prosecution was rendered by Judge Hazelrigg. In this opinion the court holds that a general law having been enacted in regard to jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, and also as to penalties for the violation of the liquor laws, that all special laws stand repealed at the expiration of six years from the adoption of the Constitution, which occurred on September 28, 1890.

The question as to whether all local option laws where the sense of the people has not been taken since the adoption of the present Constitution and the enactment of the new local option law, will also become void at the expiration of the six years is not decided, but it will certainly invalidate all such laws as provided a different punishment from the general law and may nullify them all.

All elections and local option questions may be held on a day other than regular election days.

TURNPIKE RAIDERS.

They Destroyed a Gate on the Helena and Mayslick Pike Thursday Night. Some of Them Recognized.

Raiders visited the tollgate on the Mayslick and Helena Station turnpike Thursday night about 12 o'clock. It is situated about one mile from Helena Station and is kept by "Daddy" Staton.

Mr. Staton says there were about ten in the gang. They cut the pole into three pieces and while they were at the work they would call each other by numbers. After each one had taken a turn at the gate, the leader would then take the axe and cut until he was tired, and then would call on Nos. 3 and 4 to cut awhile.

They came from the direction of Mayslick and returned the same way. All of them were masked.

The company was collecting toll as usual Friday.

The raiders may not be aware of the fact that some of them were recognized and are known. The moonlight is very bright these nights, and a gentleman who was concealed at the roadside identified at least five of the gang.

FAIR NOTES.

Remember The Admission is Only 25 Cents.
A Number of Races For Mason
And Adjoining Counties.

The superintendent of the floral hall, Mr. Harry C. Curran, wishes to have competitors feel sure that the goods intrusted to his care will be looked after carefully and returned to owner, as per rules and regulations. Those having preserves, jellies, fruits, bread, cake, fancyware or any delicate or perishable goods need have no fear of sending them to the Maysville floral hall exhibit.

From the interest manifested by people outside our city, it is safe to predict that the four days during which Maysville fair runs, larger crowds will be here than ever before in the history of the city, with very few exceptions.

Our citizens are heartily in accord with the old time Harvest Home Fair, and we feel sure that their interest will be visible by a large attendance for the four days, September 22nd to 25th. Any newspaper office in any adjacent county will furnish inquiring friends with catalogues of the Maysville fair. Go to your local office and get a catalogue.

"It is the right season to have a fair," remarked a prominent farmer in conversation with the scribe, "because we have done with our summer work and have a season of rest before beginning fall labor, and you know we country people can not rest sitting down, but must have pleasure, and I, for one, am glad Maysville is to have a farmer's festival, and you can count on me and my whole family coming."

Do not forget the admission price is only 25 cents, including grand stand, with no extra charge for the attractions which will take place in front of amphitheatre, September 22nd to 25th.

The goods for floral hall should be listed for competition with the Superintendent, Mr. Harry C. Curran, who will be at the floral hall at 8:30 on Tuesday morning, September 21st.

The management, in lieu of races of record horses during the four days fair, have arranged for green horse races, that is, horses which have no record, to be driven by owner, no matter what kind of a horse. No entry fees will be charged, and the premium offer is $25 to the leader in each race. First day, Wednesday, Adams and Brown County horses of this class may compete; second day, Thursday, Fleming and Bracken; third day, Friday, Mason and Robertson counties, and the fourth day, Saturday, free for all of these counties. Now we feel sure that in this arrangement a hearty approval will come from the lovers of horse flesh, because many of our citizens and friends own roadsters about which they brag and for which they have long wished an opportunity to show their speed. Here is the chance, and the opportunity may not again be offered, so get your horses in condition, come to the Maysville fair upon the day allotted for your county, enter your horses without charge and contend for the premium of $25 which is offered. Remember both pacers and trotters can be entered, and the fun holds out to be fairly amusing, and will draw like a porous plaster.

IN CYCLE CIRCLES.

Delightful Runs These Moonlight Nights.

Joe Diener and Tuce Willett will run to Paris Sunday.

Quite a crowd will go to Lexington during the races.

Some of the Flemingsburg boys were down Monday night.

A number of our cyclers attended the Ewing fair this week.

Weeley Lee met with an accident Thursday, but fortunately he is able to ride his bike to-day.

The harvest moon is the brightest and best of the year. Everybody should take a ride by moonlight.

Walter Durham and Will Waldron have been prominent in wheel circles at Aberdeen this week.

Rev. U. W. Darlington has had his new Victor sent to him at Winchester, while in attendance at conference.

All the cyclers in the country are invited to attend our Old Fashion Fair. Lou Seeker is coming in on a tandem.

Prof. Waller says he will be ready to ride when he gets his school started. His twenty-six-inch wheel will be here soon.

Next Saturday's BULLETIN will contain the number of miles each cyclers in Mayfield who has a cyclometer has traveled this year.

You won't get fined if you bring your wheels to our fair, boys. We will treat a stranger the best we know how, and you will have a place to put your wheel.

Mr. Sterling cyclists gave a parade last Thursday night. There were fifty riders in line. Mayfield could turn out over a hundred. Why not have a parade during the fair?

The merchants would confer a great favor upon the cyclers if they would just make a pond in front of their business houses, not a river. A little sprinkling does as much good as to flood the streets.

Ernest Shawhan, John Comer and Charles McCartery figured in a smashup last Sunday on their return trip from camp meeting, in which Shawhan's wheel was disfigured and Mr. Comer got the worst of it by sliding ten or twelve feet on the pine on his face.

The Lexington men who rode in the Labor Day road race from Lexington to Covington are not satisfied with the decision of the judges in awarding the race to Leo Langfels, of Covington, and a formal protest will probably be made. At least a full investigation will be asked for.

Randolph Hardiman, ex-Maysillian, made an excellent showing in the Labor Day road race from Lexington to Covington. He was unfortunate enough to have four punctures and would no doubt
